SALUTES TO NATIONALITY

A person from India on tourisms to Singapore, hired a cab from Singapore Airport to Destination. On reaching the destination the tourist pays 11 dollars to the cab driver as per the meter. But the cab driver accepts only the 10 dollars.

On enquiry from the tourist "Why you are taking 10$ against 11$.

The amazing reply sir, the exact fare to this destination from Airport is 10$. I was not sure about the route, so it is my mistake, why should you be penalized?

Moreover Sir, what impression you will carry if I take 11$ against 10$. Sooner or later you will come to know the exact fare. So at the end driver took 10$ and left the site.

Hats off to the driver for his Nationality.
