

BVP conducts Bharat Ko Jano Quiz Competition in collaboration with Institution of Engineers (India), Jammu Centre

Bharat Vikas Parishad Jammu Kashmir Prant conducted Bharat ko Jano Quiz Competition today in collaboration with Institution of Engineers, Channi Himmat, Jammu in their Auditorium. On this occasion Sh. Rajinder Sharma Mayor, Jammu Municipal Corporation was Chief Guest where as Sh. Dev Raj Sharma, Regional President, BVP (North-1) was Guest of Honour, Er. Sachin Tickoo, Honorary Secretary, Institution of Engineers(IEI) was Special Guest and Sh. Kumud Mehta, Regional Secretary BVP(Sewa) was Regional Observer.

The competition commenced with lightening of Traditional Lamp by Chief Guest, Guest of Honour and State/Regional Team followed by Vandematram. Sh. Narinder Misra, Prant General Secretary welcomed the participants and dignitaries.

Ashok Khajuria, Prant President BVP threw light on the objectives of Bharat Vikas Parishad and various achievements of BVP. Chief Guest lauded the role of Bharat Vikas Parishad which work for Sanskars and is running various Sewa Projects selflessly. Mayor had also introduction with the children and had all words of praise for the children.

Sh. Arun Sharma, Regional Jt. General Secretary gave briefing about the organisation and blessed the participants and asked them to perform their best in competition. 12 teams from various branches of BVP participated in Senior Category and 12 Teams in Junior category. Er. Gopal Sharma, Regional Secretary BVP Sanskar(N) narrated the Rules and regulation of the competition and briefed the importance of the function. In the neck to neck Competition of Junior category students, Spring dales Hr. Sec. School, Kathua bagged 1st Prize., K.V No.1, Gandhi Nagar got 2nd Prize and Dogra Hr. Secondary School, Shastri Nagar settled at 3rd Prize. In another competition in Senior Category, R.S Golden School, Kathua bagged 1st Prize whereas Global Convent Higher Secondary School and Dogra Higher Secondary, Shastri Nagar satisfied with 2nd and 3rd Prize. Sh. Kumud Mehta Regional Secretary, Sewa was Observer of the Competition. Er. Sachin Tickoo, Special Guest said that it is important to take youth on board for making progressive India and Engineering fraternity will also come forward in such programs and extend every possible help to BVP in this regard. Sh. Dev Raj Sharma, Guest of Honour highlighted the need of inculcating Sanskars among youth and shared details of various ongoing activities under the project Sanskars and expressed satisfaction over the Competition which was held on Computerised format with the expert technical assistance of team provided by Institution of engineers.

It was informed that teams who stood 1st will be participating at Regional Level Competition to be held in Dalhousie on 11th Dec,22. Prominent among others who were present on this occasion were Smt. Neena Gupta, Corporator, Sh. Arun Sharma,, Regional Jt. General Secretary, Amita Sharma, Regional Secretary, Bharat Bhushan Sharma,(Finance Secretary) , Ashok Gupta(Sanskar Pramukh), Dr.Santosh Gupta, Sh. Rajesh Gupta (Prant Organizing Secretary), Vijay Sharma, Trishula Gupta, H.C Vaid, Anju Bansal and many others besides Presidents, Secretaries and Treasurers from various branches, School teachers and prominent citizens from all walks of life. All the participants were given Mementoes and certificates.

The Competition was jointly conducted by Mrs. Jyotsna Sharma and Er. Gopal Sharma. All the proceedings culminated with National Anthem followed by vote of thanks presented by Sh. Rajesh Gupta.